Story 1: The Beggar Lazarus

Main Bible verse
[Luke 16:25]

"But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember what happened in your lifetime. You received your good things. Lazarus received bad things. Now he is comforted here, and you are in terrible pain.'

Long ago there lived a very rich man. He lived in a fancy house and wore very expensive clothes. Every day he ate the finest meals and lived in luxury. The rich man gathered people to his home every day for a feast. He did not believe in God and lived only for himself.

In front of the rich man's house lived a poor beggar named Lazarus. Lazarus, who lay at the rich man's gate, was covered in sores. He wore dirty clothes and ate bits of food that fell off the rich man's table. But Lazarus believed in God and was a man of faith. Then one day, Lazarus the beggar died. The angels came and carried Lazarus to heaven and laid him in the arms of Abraham, who had been praised for his faith in God. Abraham was one of the first to believe God.

Soon after, the rich man also died and was buried. He went to hell where he suffered terrible pain and suffering. Hell was like a sea of never ending fire.

The rich man screamed out in terrible pain and frantically searched for some water to soothe his dry throat. But there was no water to drink. In his suffering, the rich man looked up and saw heaven far away. The rich man was so surprised. The rich man was very jealous of Lazarus.

He called out to his ancestor Abraham. "Father Abraham! Please save me! My whole body is burning in this fire. It is so very hot! Please send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in terrible pain in this fire!" Abraham responded: "Son, Lazarus cannot come to you. Remember that in your lifetime you received your good things and you lived for your own happiness, while Lazarus received bad things and lived in hunger and pain. But now he is comforted here and you are suffering in hell. And besides all this, between us and you there is a great permanent separation, so we cannot go from here to you, and no one can cross over from there to us."

The rich man did not help Lazarus when he was alive. He did not know how to love his neighbors. Like this rich man, if we don't know how to love our neighbors, then we cannot be called God's people. Jesus teaches us to love God and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Activity 1.

Think about what we learned today and color the picture below.

Activity 2.

Tear and glue the colored paper to decorate heaven where Lazarus the beggar is and hell where the rich man is.

- Trace and memorize the Bible verse. (Luke 16:25)

...comforted here, and you are in terrible pain.
