

Jesus loves the little children

—3rd Story—

17Page

Narration Jesus arrived in a Jewish village with his disciples to preach the Word of the Kingdom of God. Wherever Jesus went crowds gathered. Among them were parents who had brought their young children with them.

Parent 1 Finally! Jesus has come to our village.

Parent 2 My child, lets us go greet Jesus and listen to His blessing~

Child Yay~~!

Narration The children were so excited at the thought of meeting Jesus!

18Page

Narration There He is! Jesus is over there! The children jumped up and rushed to Jesus' side. But when the children tried to get closer to Jesus, the disciples blocked them and their parents.

Disciple 1 How can you bring children when Jesus is teaching the Word?! No! No!

Disciple 2 The children will be loud and disruptive. Jesus will not like it! Go away!

Child But I want to see Jesus too... (cry)

19Page

Narration Jesus, who had seen everything, scolded the disciples.

Jesus Let the little children come to me! Do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to those like these children! My dear disciples, I tell you the truth, you must receive the kingdom of God like a little child - if you do not, you will never enter it.

20Page

Narration Jesus was welcoming of little children. He would hold them in his arms and place His hand on them and bless them.

Child 1 Wow~ Jesus, your beard is so handsome!

Child 2 Tell us another story Jesus!"

Jesus Ok, ok~ hahahaha

Narration Wherever He went, Jesus was welcoming of children - He did not think of them as disruptive. He loved them and was very fond of them.