

The Story of Jesus

⑥ Five Loaves of Bread and Two Fish

Narration One day, Jesus' disciples were helping Jesus to spread the good news. They were very tired. They had not had time to eat or rest. Jesus said to his disciples.

Jesus Let's go to a quiet place and get some rest. There are so many people. You are busy taking care of them.

Narration So, Jesus and (his) disciples got on a boat and went to a quiet place.

witness 1 Wow! Look! Isn't he Jesus? I think so.
And the disciples are with him.

witness 2 Let's go and follow them. I know a short cut.

Peter Huh? Didn't he say this was a quiet place?
Look at these people? What are they doing here?

People Jesus, my tummy is getting bigger. Do I need a diet?
Please heal me.
Jesus, I am lonely.
Jesus, I am hungry.

Narration Jesus felt faith fill his heart when he saw the crowd.

Jesus They are just like sheep without a shepherd.

Narration So Jesus stayed with them and taught about the Kingdom of Heaven. It was getting dark.
The disciples came to Jesus.

Peter We are in a field. It is late. Why don't you stop teaching and let them go and buy food?

Jesus You should feed them.

Disciples Us?!?

Peter Feed them? Look at (all of them!) It would cost more than 200 denarius. We don't have that much money.

Jesus How many loaves of bread do you have here?

Narration A few minutes later, the disciples brought a kid with a basket.

John This kid has five loaves of bread and two fish. That's all we have, Lord.

Jesus Bring the bread and fish here. Let people sit down on the grass.

.....

Narration Jesus looked up to heaven and prayed.

Jesus Father God, we thank you. You give us daily bread. Amen.

Narration Jesus had the disciples give the bread and fish to everyone. People ate as much as they wanted. They were full.

The disciples picked up the leftovers in 12 baskets. 5,000 men ate the bread and the fish.
