

The Story of David

⑩ David anointed king of Israel

Narration After Saul's death, his son Ish-Bosheth became of king of Israel and ruled the entire northern region. David became king of Judah and ruled over only the tribe of Judah. North Israel and Judah in the South were at war with each other.

.....

Narration As time went by, Judah grew stronger and more stable under the rule of David but North Israel became increasingly chaotic and weak under the rule of Ish-Bosheth. In the midst of all the chaos, King Ish-Bosheth is suddenly murdered. In an instant Israel is in turmoil and is in need of a new king. And so all the elders of Israel travel to Hebron to meet King David.

.....

Elder 1 King David. We ask that you rule over not just Judah but the whole of Israel.

David What are you saying?

Elder 2 All the tribes of Northern Israel are already waiting for you to be their king. Above all, didn't our Lord God promise that you would be rule of Israel?
You are indeed the true king of Israel anointed by God.

Narration King David covenanted with them before God and the elders of Israel anointed David as king of the whole of Israel.

After David became king of the whole of Israel, king David attached the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem.

Jebusite 1 Do you think you are strong enough to enter this place? Hahaha, just go home!

Jebusite 2 You will not get in here; even the blind and the lame can ward you off! Hahahaha!

David How dare you...

Here, if use the water shaft you can reach the enemy!
You must triumph!

Narration King David conquered Jerusalem and called it the City of David. King David and his servants took up residence in the fortress.

King David became more and more powerful because the Lord God Almighty was with him.
