

I believe in the Lord Jesus!

Narration A few day later, Paul left antioch with Silas to preach the gospel to other places again. And he went through many cities. One day, he came to Philippi.

Silas Wow, that's amazing!

Narration There was a maid possessed by a spirit and predicted the future. Through that, she made a lot of money for her masters.

Maid Be careful about water in this summer!

Master Aw, you pretty thing. A lot of money is flowing because of you! I love it!

Narration However, she followed Paul and his group and shouted out to the people.

Maid These are servants of the most high God! Now they are going to speak you about the salvation! Hahahaha!

Narration The maid shouted everyday and Paul couldn't stand anymore. He went to her and tell to the evil spirit she had.

Paul In the name of Jesus Christ, I command you, you evil spirit, get out of this woman!

Narration Then the evil spirit immediately left the maid and she returned to normal.

Master Hey, what happened!?

Narration The maid's masters were so upset because they couldn't earn money through the maid anymore. So they caught Paul and Silas and took them to square court to sue them.

Master These guys are Jews and they are making a big issue in our town!

People They're promoting dirty pagan culture! Hit them hard and kick them out of our town!

Narration So the soldiers beat Paul and Silas a lot and put them in jail.

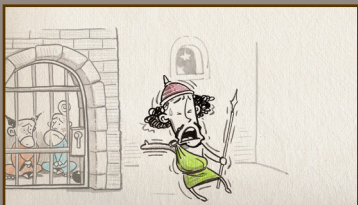

Soldiers Keep an eye on them!

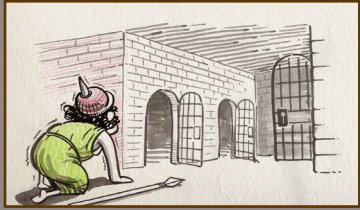

Jailer Yes sir!

Narration One night, Paul and Silas were praying and praying God in prison, and the other prisoners were listening.

Paul, Silas (praising)

Prisoners What are those? They just got beaten and they're singin? Maybe.. they're so shocked and they are out of their minds? (Paul, Silas keep praising)

Narration And then, suddenly, a great earthquake occurred. (rumble)

Jailer What's going on? Huh!

Narration The entire jail was shaken violently and therefore, all the doors opened and the chains of the prisoners released!

Paul Huh?

Prisoners What happened? Wow...

Jailer The d..doors are all open! And the all prisoners are gone!

Narration The jailer was so depressed and he tried to kill himself.

Jailer All the prisoners ran away, so I have no reason to live..

Paul Stop! Don't hurt yourself! We are all here! No one ran away!

Narration The jailer was scared. Trembling he approached Paul and Silas.

Jailer (sober) What happened here? Sir, what must I do to be saved?

Paul Your Lord is no longer the Roman emperor. Believe in Jesus as Lord. Then you and your household will be saved.

Narration Even in the middle of the night, the jailer took the two men to his house and washed their wounds. His entire family heard and believed the word of God through Paul and Silas and were baptized. And the next morning came.

Jailer Sir, Paul! The soldiers sent a messenger to release you both! So come out now and go in peace!

Narration Paul and Silas were praising God and left there to spread the gospel.
