

I will also spread the kingdom of God!

- Narration Paul requested to go to Rome for the trial and he boarded a boat with other prisoners and set sail for Rome. One day on the way to Rome, Paul's boat stopped at a place called Havens.
- Paul This journey seems very dangerous, due to the wind. We should stay here for a few days and wait for the weather to get better.
- Captain Sheesh, you're wrong! My boat is good enough for that kind of weather. We can even depart now!
- Centurion All right, captain. Hey, 24602! In the sea, the captain is an expert, so don't say a word against him!
- Narration So the boat set sail again. However, it didn't go far.
- Captain WoWW!!!!!! It's a storm! A huge wave is coming! Hold on tight, everyone!
- Sailors Ooooooh! Captain, We are going to through up!
- Narration The boat was so endangered by the great storm. Everyone was terrified and unable to do anything. The boat was swept away by the storm for a few days. People were gripped with great fear.
- Prisoner 1 I can't take it anymore.. Now we're going to die in the sea... Mom.. I miss you...
- Prisoner 2 Urgh... I feel sick... I'm gonna through up again... Uh..!
- Sailor 1 Oh my.. there is no hope.. I can't even see the moon and sun.. Now we are just waiting to die.. I can't see the future..
- Narration When everyone was gripped by then fear of death..
- Paul (in a tough but confident voice) Don't be afraid, everyone! No one will die. Last night the God spoke to me through an angel.
- Angel Paul, do not be afraid.. You must go to the Roman emperor and all these men with you will go safely to Rome.
- Paul So everyone, cheer up. I believe that everything will be done according to the word of God.
- Prisoner 1 Can I trust you?
- Narration It's been 19 days since Paul's boat started drifting. Then the boat finally landed on an island. And all the people got off the boat safely.
- People Whoa!! I live!!
- Sailor 1 Everything that Apostle Paul told us was true..!
- Sailor 2 I guess there really exists Jesus whom Paul is talking about. From now on, I'll listen to Paul!

- Narration This incident made everyone believe Paul's words. The island Paul and his companions had drifted to was an island called Melidea.
- Paul Here is..Mel..Meli..Melidea island!
- Jailer 1 Hm.. Is that the house of the chief official of the island!?
- Narration That was an estate belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island. His father was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery.
- Father It's so hot.. and it tickles... put the planet away.. please..
- Publius Father.. (sobbing)
- Narration When Paul saw this, he laid his hands on him and prayed to heal him.
- Father Ha! Cool! It's cool! Finally no pain!!
- Narration Other sick people on the island heard about this and came to Paul. Paul healed them all.
- Patient 1 Paul, my hand is deformed. Please fix my hand...
- Patient 2 Paul.. I ate yesterday something wrong and my stomach hurts..
- Narration The islanders were grateful about what Paul has done and they loaded Paul's boat with food and stuffs.
- People (all together) Thank you, goodbye! We won't forget you!
- Narration Paul and his group continued their journey and they finally arrived in Rome. Paul received special treatment in Rome, got a rental house and stayed there for two years. He met all who came to him and without hindrance, he proclaimed the kingdom of God and taught about Jesus Christ. According to history, he preached the kingdom of God and Jesus until the day he was martyred in Rome.
