

The lame got up and walked!

- Narration One day, at 3 PM, when it was time to pray, Peter and John were going up to the temple. And there was a man who was lame from birth by the temple door called 'beautiful gate'.
- Lame man Give me some money..
- Narration He was Peter and John going into the temple and begged. Peter and John looked at him and talked to him.
- Lame man Now I've met someone with whom I can speak. Well, how much will you give me?
- Peter I don't have any money to give you.
- Lame man What? You got no money?
- Peter I have no money but I can do this for you. Stand up and walk in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth!
- Lame man What are you doing?! Huh?? What? Am I standing? I got up! I got up!! God raised me up!!
- Narration The lame went with Peter and John into the temple courts, walking and jumping and praising God.
- Man 1 Isn't he the lame beggar?
- Man 2 No way! How can the lame jump like that?
- Man 3 I think he is that guy who was lame! What happened? Unbelievable!
- Lame man Yes that's me! I am the lame beggar in front of the temple! But these two men got me up and now, I can jump and walk!
- Man 1 Wow, really? Those people are great! How can they do this?
- Narration People's attention was focused on Peter. Then Peter said:
- Peter Why are you staring at us? Do not think that we have done this thing because of our power or our goodness. This man got healed in the name of Jesus. We gave Jesus into the hands of the Roman soldiers and he suffered and died for us on the cross. But he rose from the dead on the third day. The power of Jesus, whom we believe in, has completely healed this man!
- Narration People listened to Peter and praised God for salvation and the number of people who believed in Jesus increased day by day.
