

Saul was changed because of Jesus

- Narration When Stephen was stoned, a young man there named Saul thought Stephen's death was fair for his fault.
- Saul Killing Stephen was a right choice for God. Those worthless beings should be punished in the name of God.
- Narration After that, Saul tried to destroy the church where people who believed in Jesus gathered. Then he went from house to house, finding men and women who believed in Jesus, and threw them all in prison.
- Saul Search everyone who claim to believe in Jesus, everyone! Put them all in jail!
- Narration One day Saul was on his way to Damascus to arrest those who believed in Jesus.
- Saul Jesuits have spread to Damascus. These men who insult the name of the Holy God. I will go to the end of the world and arrest them all! But what is that?
- Narration A bright light from heaven shined upon Saul
- Saul My eyes!!! What is this light! Ahh!!!
- Narration A voice came from heaven to Saul, who fell on the ground.
- Jesus Saul, Saul, why do you pursue me?
- Saul ...Who... who are you?
- Jesus I am the Jesus you pursued. From now on, listen to what I say. Now get up and go back to the city, where you will find help.
- Narration Saul got up from the ground and opened his eyes, but he was blind. The others took him to the city of Damascus.
- Jesus Ananias, Ananias
- Ananias Speak, my Lord
- Jesus Get up now and go to the house of Judas in the Straight Street, find a man named Saul, and lay your hands on him and tell him what to do next.
- Ananias No, isn't Saul the one who persecutes people like us who believe in Jesus? Should I help him?
- Jesus Ananias, I have made him new, so do not be afraid to go.
- Ananias Yes, Lord I will.
- Ananias Hello. Anyone here? Is there a person named Saul?
- Saul I am Saul

Ananias Brother Saul, Jesus told me to find you and preach gospel to you.

Saul Right. Then you are the one Jesus sent.

Ananias Yes, now your eyes will be opened and see again in the name of Jesus Christ.

Saul See again... Huh??? I can see!!! My eyes are open!

Narration After Saul was baptized, he learned the gospel to Ananias.

Saul Oh my... Jesus died for people like me...

Narration Afterwards, Saul went to various synagogues and preached that Jesus is the Son of God.

Saul Believe in the Lord Jesus. He is the Son of God who came to save us. Believe in Jesus everyone.

Narration Saul, who once persecuted those who believed in Jesus, was changed after meeting Jesus, and became the one who preached the gospel.
