Cornelius Go to Simon Joppa's house and bring a man named Peter to my house. God told me through an angel to bring him here.

Cornelius' Servant Would a Jew easily come to a Roman house?

Cornelius All you have to do is do what you are told. go ahead

Cornelius' Servant Yes... yes... my lord...

Narration At that time, Peter was staying in the town of Joppa, praying to God.

Peter Father, thank you, I glorify your name... Huh? What is that? Why... is there a basket coming down from the sky? What is falling from the sky? What is this? No way, why are these unclean animals here? Were they kicked out?

God Peter, Peter, go ahead and eat them.

Peter What? It's impossible. I have never eaten any of these unclean animals since I was a child.

God Do not call them unclean what God has made clean. Go ahead and eat.

Peter Still, no way.

God Eat.

Peter I can't eat it because it's unclean.

God Peter. Why do you keep saying they are unclean when I say they are clean? Listen to me, Peter. Do not consider anyone you meet as unclean. Do you understand?

Peter What is going on? Why did God show this to me?

Peter's Servant Peter, you have a visitor. These people want to meet you.

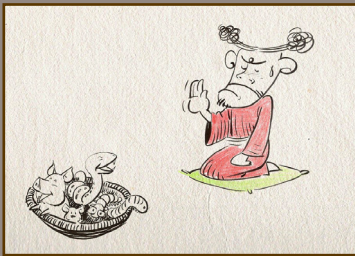

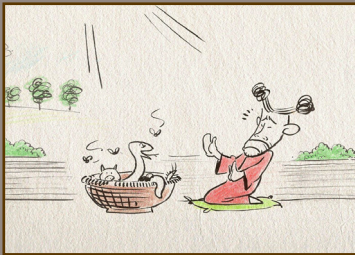

Narration The men sent by Cornelius explained to Peter in detail why they were here.

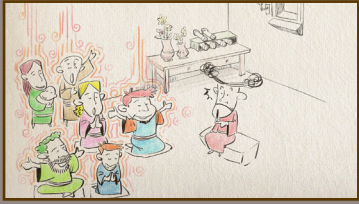

Cornelius' Servant Please come with us.

Narration So Peter and Cornelius' servants went to Cornelius's house.

Peter Why did you invite me?

Cornelius Oh, Peter, welcome. We gathered here before God to hear all the words of life you will teach us.

Peter | Originally, Jews were not allowed to get along with Gentiles. But God gave me a vision from heaven, and he told me not to regard anyone as unclean. I now realize that God does not discriminate against people and that God accepts people from all nations.

Narration | Then, Peter talked about Jesus and explained the Bible. While Apostle Peter was speaking, the Holy Spirit came upon everyone.

Peter | Oh! God sent the Holy Spirit even to the Gentiles! They are also God's people!

Narration | Cornelius family was baptized in the name of Jesus Christ and became Christians together. For the Cornelius family, this day was the day of supreme joy and gratitude.

Cornelius | Ha ha How happy and grateful~~
