You got it. Good luck, Amos. Hang on.

NAR As the friends lowered Amos down into the home, Jesus stopped what he was doing and looked up and saw what was happening. Amos was dropped right in front of Jesus in the middle of the crowd. Everyone was surprised at what just happened, but Jesus just smiled.

Jesus Hello there, friend.

Amos H- Hello, Teacher.

Jesus Don't worry. Your sins are forgiven.

NAR As soon as Jesus said this, the Pharisees that were there became angry because of what he said.

Pharisees This man is speaking blasphemy! No one can forgive sins, but God alone!

NAR Jesus knew what these teachers of the law were saying and thinking among themselves. So he called to them.

Jesus Why do you think evil in your hearts? What is easier to say? "Your sins are forgiven ", or "Rise up and walk"? But that you may know that the Son of Man has the power on Earth to forgive sins, I say to you, get up! Take your bed, and walk.

NAR Immediately then, Amos, the paralysed man, got up and walked around!

Amos Oh my goodness! My Lord! My Lord, thank you! I knew you would help me! Praise God!

Crowd <gasps> Wow! Incredible! That was amazing!

NAR Amos praised God and left, walking, with his friends to return to his home. Many people were amazed that someone could make a lame man walk again. Many wondered who this Jesus was. Others were suspicious of Him.

 "I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on Earth to forgive sins.' So he spoke to the man who could not walk. 'I tell you,' he said, 'get up. Take your mat and go home.'" Luke 5:24 NlrV
