Narration Then one day, the younger brother Abel brought fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. His elder brother Cain also brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the Lord. But God only accepted Abel's offering - he did not look with favor on Cain and his offering. Cain was angry and even hated his younger brother Abel.

C a i n Why does God only accept Abel's offering? If only he wasn't around... then God would look on me with favor...

Narration Cain's heart was filled with resentment towards God and jealousy towards his younger brother. Then one day, Abel could not be found. God asked Cain:

G o d Cain, where is Abel?

C a i n Lord, how should I know? Am I my brother's keeper? I am a busy farmer; I have to pick out the weeds and...

G o d Cain! What have you done?

Narration God already knew everything. Although Cain tried to deceive God by lying to Him, Cain knew where Abel was.

C a i n That's right...Abel...without you...!! Argh!!

Narration Cain attacked Abel and hit him with a rock. Abel bled and ultimately died. God asked Cain already knowing everything but Cain tried to deceive God.

G o d Your brother's blood cried out to me from the ground. From now on, when you work the ground, it will no longer yield its crops for you. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth.

C a i n Lord, if you drive me from this beautiful land to wander on the earth, whoever finds me will kill me.

Narration Cain, who thought he had been abandoned by God was afraid that he would be killed if he wandered on the earth. But, although Cain had sinned, God took pity on him and promised that no one who found him would kill him. Cain, in sadness, left the presence of God and lived in the land east of Eden.
