

Story 8 : Isaac and Rebekah

Main Bible verse
[Genesis 24:67]

Isaac brought Rebekah into the tent that had belonged to his mother Sarah. And he married Rebekah. She became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother died.

Abraham decided to find a wife for Isaac. He thought of Haran his homeland.

Abraham called for a trustworthy servant. And he told him to go to Haran and find a wife to be Isaac's wife.

The servant left for Haran. Finally the servant arrived in Haran around dinnertime.

Exhausted from the long journey the servant sat by the well just outside the city to rest.

And the servant knelt by the well and prayed to God.

"Lord! The women of this town will come out to draw water, and I will know that the one who provides water for me, as well as the camels, is Isaac's chosen wife-to-be."

Soon, a woman with a jar approached the well.

He approached her and said, "Will you give me a little water from your jar?"

Rebekah answered, "Drink, my lord. I'll draw water for your camels too."

The servant was surprised when he heard this.

"Ah, the Lord has heard my prayer. This woman must be the one for master Isaac."

The woman's name was Rebekah. The servant and Rebekah left for Abraham's home.

When the servant and Rebekah arrived at Abraham's house,

Isaac was walking in the fields.

The servant told Isaac of everything that had happened, and Isaac brought her into his home.

Isaac and Rebekah were married and were greatly blessed.

Activity 1.

Connect the dots to complete the picture.

- Trace and memorize the Bible verse. (Genesis 24:67)

And he married Rebekah.

Activity 2.

Think about what we learned today, and color the picture below.

8 Isaac and Rebekah